

Easter 2018

Dear Friends,

As Easter approaches I have quite a few changes to tell you about in the animal corner at The Jonas Centre.

In February Jerry the Turkey became ill, sadly the kind people at The Jonas Centre had to make the decision to put him to sleep as he wasn't getting any better. Around this time, Amber, one of the ducks also went missing, along with a chicken. I think they went on a little adventure together and am waiting for a post card! All of a sudden it seemed very quiet in our little part of the world - although Martini the Goose made sure it wasn't quiet for long, he likes to talk a lot!

2018 is the Chinese year of the dog, but here at The Jonas Centre it's not... (although dogs are very welcome, and myself and Billie the Pygmy Goat love watching our guests' dogs playing in the dog run). Instead, at The Jonas Centre, 2018 is the year of the Pig! A couple of weeks ago Prudence, a Kune Kune Pig came to live with us. Prudence also brought some friends, a Goose called Cinzano, and Esther, Gloria and Vince the Ducks, along with three very cheeky chickens.

Prudence makes such a racket, snorting, grunting and screeching, especially at feeding time. But she is making herself at home and everyone here loves her. I can tell you though that life is no longer quiet. Martini and Prudence seem to be in a competition with each other to see who is the loudest!

Happy Easter nibbling,

Sally the Shetland Pony.

P.S. The ducks and chickens all say "Hi!"
